Micro Trading Tactics. Color. 90 mins. mins. Video Released Jul. 2005. Instructed by Oliver Velez. Unlike Swing Traders, who often hold positions for 2-5 days, astute Micro Traders jump on breakouts - and breakdowns - moving in and out of positions quickly each market day. They find opportunity in 5 or 15-minute charts, taking frequent, bite-sized profits out of the market. This technique can be immensely rewarding - but takes skill and training to survive such rapid-fire moves. Now, this groundbreaking new course presents powerful methods for mastering the art of Micro Trading with maximum precision. Find a complete listing of what you'll learn under the 'Jacket Description' section. Marketplace Bks., Inc. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-59280-241-8(9)) $99.00.

Mission: God at Work, Faith in Action. Color. 225 mins. mins. Video Released Mar. 2004. Won the Silver Crown Award for Best Series at the 2004 ICVM Crown Awards[NOTE: Available on DVD only]This original series of documentary-style magazine shows was created as a prime-time series by FaithTV for airing on the Sky Angel satellite and many other cable outlets across America. It features stories of God?s work taking place on nearly every continent around the world. Hosts for the series are Steve Saint and Dianne Becker, who use their personal mission experience to give a taste of the adventure of overseas work. Steve is the son of Nate Saint, one of the five missionaries killed in Ecuador in 1956. Dianne, who also served as producer for this series, has worked as a news reporter and has traveled the world producing many mission stories. The shows are hosted on location at Steve?s base of operation near Ocala, Forida. There is a hangar full of stories at I-TEC ? Indigenous Peoples Technology and Education Center, where they work to empower indigenous churches. Stories featured on Mission include cannibals transformed by God?s love, living water offered to African villagers, street children offered a new life, and more. It also features stories from various mission agencies: Pioneers, SEND, World Team, Africa Inland Mission. These stories of God working will bring a new awareness of mission work worldwide. Molokai: Father Damien (subtitled)-Spanish. Color. 123 mins. mins. Video Released Aug. 2003. This powerful drama is the story of Damien, who in 1872 went to the island of Molokai, where those suffering from leprosy had been exiled and forced to live in miserable surroundings, abandoned from the outside world. Little by little, Damien earned the trust of the lepers, and eventually, his appeals for workers and supplies resonated throughout the world. Even after Damien got sick himself, his energy did not abate, and he carried on working for the well-being of his ?fellow lepers? to the end. Starring David Wenham, Sam Neill, Kris Kristofferson, and Peter O?Toole. Para resolver la problema de la lepra en las islas hawaianas en 1872, han exilado a las victimas implacablemente a Molokai, una isla infructuosa de la costa. Esta isla tiene pocos recursos, y los leprosos viven en condiciones miserables. El Padre Damien es el primer cura en ir a la isla de Molokai para aliviar el sufrimiento y el futuro de los leprosos. Antes de viajar para Molokai, su Obispo le da estas palabras de advertencia, ?No toques a nadie.?Poco a poco, Damien obtiene la confianza y el aprecio de los leprosos en la isla. Observando las condiciones de los leprosos cada dia, el Padre Damien comienza a suplicar a la iglesia para que le envie apoyo para los enfermos en Molokai. Sus suplicaciones irritan a los lideres de la iglesia catolica. Sin embargo, su clamor llega a ser oido por todo el mundo trayendo apoyo y provisiones.El tiempo pasa y el Padre Damien se contagia con la lepra. Sin embargo, sigue adelante con su labor misionero. Un dia, en medio de una misa, el Padre Damien se cae al suelo y con urgencia lo llevan a su propio hospital. Todos los residentes se juntan en la entrada para orar por su padre?. Vision Video. VHS. Mothers & Sons: The Crucial Connection. (1996). Family. Color. 32 mins. (Ackerman Institute for the Family Ser.). Video Released Aug. 1996. Author Olga Silverstein. Produced by Steve Lerner. In this moving and at times deeply personal video from the Ackerman Institue for the Family, Olga Silverstein\m-\internationally renowned therapist, teacher, and author\m-\presents a compelling vision for connection, possibility, and change in the mother\n-\son relationship. An immensely useful and skillfully presented resource, the program draws upon the clinical expertise of Silverstein and producer Steve Lerner, practicing family therapist and founding director of Menninger Video Productions. Challenging prevailing cultural and psychotherapeutic messages that encourage mothers to "pull back" from their sons, and sons to distance themselves from their mothers, Silverstein draws upon her extensive therapeutic background and personal experiences with her own son to provide viewers with an informal yet incisive overview of:* The ways traditional Freudian interpretations of the mother-son relationship inhibit parent-child intimacy and weaken family bonds * Common cultural assumptions regarding "maleness" and "femaleness" and how these can hobble the emotional development of male children and adolescents * The profound implications of these issues for all mother-son relationships, particularly for the millions of female-headed households in America. The video focuses on a case study of a therapeutic intervention with a single mother and her teenage son, and is illustrated as well with personal snapshots from the author's own family photo album. Silverstein's strong presence is felt throughout as she offers wise guidance informed by poignant and illuminating insights gained from her own parenting experiences. Presenting a convincing case for rethinking the models under which mental health professionals have long operated in regard to mother\n-\son relationships and child development, Silverstein cogently examines such critical issues as: * The cultural assumption that male role models are a prerequisite for raising healthy males. * Ways single mothers can, on their own, teach their sons all they need in order to become emotionally healthy, self-sufficient adults. * Cultural norms regarding "masculinity" that can actually increase the risk of health problems such as heart disease, mortality associated with violence, and other physical and mental health issues. Mötley Crüe Carnival of Sins Live, 2 vols. Color. 200 mins. mins. Age: 18-UP. Home. R. Video Released Oct. 2005. In spring 2005 MOTLEY CRUE embarked on their first world tour in more than six years, the outrageous and globally successful RED, WHITE AND CRUE TOUR. Infamous for their visually wild and intensely live stage shows, CARNIVAL OF SINS captures original CRUE members Vince Neil, Nikki Sixx, Mick Mars and Tommy Lee in a stage show that sets a new standard for music DVDs. CARNIVAL OF SINS is a "circus gone bad" concept spectacular taking place under a huge circus tent stage set with pyrotechnics that are excessive, a fire-breathing midget, seductive aerialists and demonic clowns that will keep you roaring for more.Directed by acclaimed, award-winning director Hamish Hamilton (U2, Madonna and Peter Gabriel), recorded live by Grammy? award winning Jon Harris, mixed by Bob Rock and Mike Gillies (Metallica, Aerosmith, and Motley Crue) and shot using 20-cameras all in high-definition film look. This eyeball-popping production is a non-stop rock n' roll circus. CARNIVAL OF SINS is an exercise in visual and musical excess from both sides of the stage giving MOTLEY CRUE fans, and curious onlookers, a chance to see THE ULTIMATE ROCK N' ROLL EXPERIENCE from the safety of your own living room!. Msange, Tanzania. Education. Religious And Inspirational. 22 mins. (Field Afar Ser.). Narrated by Steve Allen. In Tanzania's rural village of Msange, secondary education for girls is most often an unaffordable luxury. With little choice, girls typically marry at 16 to 18 years of age, raise children, keep a home & work in the fields. Sister Darlene Jacobs founded the Murigha Community School to provide choices for the future of teenage girls wanting to further their education beyond primary school. Murigha's unique blend of academic courses & practical skills enables 130 girls boarding there today to become self-reliant, independent young women. Poor families, sacrificing for their daughters' education, reap benefits, as does the community. Maryknoll World Productions. VHS, pap., stu. ed. (Order #: 503) $9.95.

Mudra: Gestures of Power. Yoga. 45 Mins mins. Video Released Oct. 2005. Author Sabrina Mesko. When you join your hands together in prayer, offer your open hand to a friend, or even point your finger to emphasize an idea - you are using a symbolic body language with roots in antiquity. On Mudra, Gestures of Power, you will join yoga expert and mudra authority Sabrina Mesko to discover an elegant, yet powerful, system for connecting your intention with the flow of energy through every cell in your body. "Mudra" is a Sanskrit word meaning "seal" or "sign" used by the yogis of India to describe the ritual hand gestures they practiced during deep meditation. These early priests secretly investigated how we can actualize inner states through outer expression with asanas or postures, including positions for the hands and fingers. From fearlessness, to patience, to energy, to enlightenment - every higher quality we aspire to can be "sealed" and activated with its own mudra. Now you can investigate for yourself one of the oldest esoteric arts for strength-ening your body, clarifying your thoughts, and deepening your meditations with Mudra. Gestures of Power. Multidimensional Aspects of Healing: Synthesis of Eastern Scripture & Western Biophysics, 2 cass. (1999). Science-General. Psychology. Color. 180 mins. (Science & Consciousness Ser.). Made-for-Video. Video Released Jun. 1999. Glen Rein. This presentation integrates wisdom from ancient Eastern scriptures, contemporary theories in quantum physics & recent discoveries in molecular biology, featuring DNA's ability to change its shape or topology & the implication this has for human health & evolution. Bridging science, spirit & health, this synthesis results in a powerful and unique depiction of who we are at the highest level of consciousness (the Healer within) & the role we can play in our own evolution, ultimate health & well-being. Taught in the style of ancient Eastern wisdom traditions, didactic segments are alternated with experiential exercises throughout the session. These exercises include visualization, guided imagery, music & meditation, with real-time computerized video graphics also used to facilitate some of the experiential techniques. The video explores the realms of changing our physiology in ways that have, until recently, been thought impossible or unlikely, while cultivating the understanding that physical health must be kept in perspective as a means to assist us in our evolutionary process of Self-realization. The Music of Man Vol. 1: The Quiver of Life; The Flowering of Harmony. Music-History And Criticism. Color. 116 mins. Created by Yehudi Menuhin. From prehistoric times to ancient Greece, many elements combined to create music, including the sounds of nature & humans' innate body rhythms. Menuhin takes viewers around the world for lively examples of native music-making. With the growth of music from the Middle Ages to the Renaissance came a blending of many voices. Medieval plainsong was the basis for harmony & for the development of a reliable notation system. Public Media, Inc. (Home Vision). VHS, Hi-Fi. (Order #: MUS09) $39.95.

The Music of Man Vol. 2: New Voices for Man; The Age of the Composer. Music-History And Criticism. Color. 116 mins. Created by Yehudi Menuhin. During the Renaissance, the madrigal was so developed that a drama set to music by Monteverdi became the first opera. Corelli created the sonata, & Purcell & Handel began composing. European music was brought to Africa & the New World. Bach's works embodied a golden age of harmony; Mozart evoked human passion with grace; Beethoven announced the composer as creator of his own personal idiom; & Schubert addressed the inner person. Public Media, Inc. (Home Vision). VHS, Hi-Fi. (Order #: MUS10) $39.95.

The Music of Man Vol. 3: The Age of the Individual; The Parting of the Ways. Music-History And Criticism. Color. 116 mins. Created by Yehudi Menuhin. Music expanded with Western industry. Verdi became a cultural hero; Brahms explored the folk roots of music; Wagner cut music loose from its moorings; & Tchaikovsky gave musical shape to nationalism. In the years before World War I, the songs of Foster, the rags of Joplin, & the marches of Sousa shaped American musical tastes. Debussy, Strauss, & Mahler filled European concert halls, while Stravinsky advanced the revolution. Public Media, Inc. (Home Vision). VHS, Hi-Fi. (Order #: MUS11) $39.95.

The Music of Man Vol. 4: The Known & the Unknown; Sound or Unsound. Music-History And Criticism. Color. 116 mins. Created by Yehudi Menuhin. Between the World Wars, jazz swept the continents. Gershwin fused classical music, jazz, & blues. Schoenberg formulated the twelve-tone scale. Radio & film popularized all forms of music, from Toscanini to the Big Bands. Since World War II, all of the old musical rules have been questioned. New technology has spurred new developments in Western music, taking it into a new age of folk, rock, electronic music, & beyond. Public Media, Inc. (Home Vision). VHS, Hi-Fi. (Order #: MUS12) $39.95.

My Architect. Color. 116 mins. NR. Video Released Feb. 2005. Directed by Nathaniel Kahn. A riveting tale of love, art, betrayal and forgiveness - in which the illegitimate son of a legendary architect undertakes a worldwide exploration to discover and understand his father's work and the personal choices he made. Louis I. Kahn is considered by many historians to have been the most important architect of the second half of the twentieth century. While Kahn's artistic legacy was a search for truth and clarity, his personal life was secretive and chaotic. His mysterious death in a train station men's room left behind three families - one with his wife and two with women with whom he had long-term affairs. The child of one of these extra-marital relationships, Kahn's only son Nathaniel, sets out on a journey to reconcile the life and work of this mysterious man. Revealing the haunting beauty of his father's monumental creations and taking us to the rarified heights of the world's most celebrated architects and deep within his own divided family, Nathaniel's personal journey becomes a universal investigation of identity, a celebration of art and ultimately, of life itself. In a pre-dawn assault by the police, Panthers Hampton & Mark Clark were killed. Activists were increasingly becoming targets of police harassment at both the local & federal levels. Inmates at New York's Attica prison took over the prison in an effort to publicize intolerable conditions. During the police assault which ended the takeover, several inmates & guards were killed. For some, Attica came to symbolize the brutality of a hardened political regime. Public Broadcasting Service (PBS). VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7936-0224-7(6), Order #: EYES-206) $49.95; VHS, Indexed Version. A Nation Returns: Germany. History, Continental European. Color. 50 mins. (Nationalism Ser.: Blood and Belonging). Public performance. Looks at Germany reunified: while there was an East/West, communist/capitalist split, Germans could forget about nationalism, which is now back with a vengeance. The liberals don't like the Germany they have, while the neo-Nazis love a Germany that doesn't exist; after 45 years of longing for reunification, the two Germanys hardly recognize one another. Natural Meditation. Meditation. 30 Mins mins. Video Released Oct 2005. Author Lama Surya Das. With his book Awakening the Buddha Within, Lama Surya Das emerged as a leading figure in American Buddhism. His simple and direct approach to meditation and enlightenment - what he calls "Western Dharma" - offers us a vital and authentic link to the treasured teachings of ancient Tibet. Now, with Natural Perfection, Lama Surya Das introduces us to Tibet's most closely guarded enlightenment tradition - dzogchen, "The Natural Great Perfection." The Buddhist masters of Tibet believed that dzogchen was destined to become the single most powerful spiritual vehicle in the West. Why? "Because dzogchen takes the struggle out of meditation," explains Surya Das. "It is spacious, natural, and relaxing - and it doesn't require religious beliefs or fixed rules about how to live or meditate." In six profound and energizing sessions, Lama Surya Das guides us through each step of dzogchen practice, where we learn rigpa "natural awareness" practice; sky-gazing meditations, prayers and chants to open the heart and mind; and much more. Finally, here is a way for us to discover, side by side with this beloved American lama, the great awakened state that we already possess within - our own Natural Perfection. Sounds True, Inc. DVD. Networking Your Way to a New Job, 1. (From Pink Slip to Paycheck Ser.: 5). CC Video Released Jun. 2006. Produced by JIST Publishing Staff, NaJor Productions. Networking is an essential part of any job search. However, if you're unemployed, you might feel a little embarrassed to share your situation with the people you know. In Networking Your Way to a New Job, you'll learn that you need to change your perspective. It's not about personal failure. It's about building personal relationships. Survey after survey shows that at least 60 percent of all job openings are filled through networking. Some statistics even say that between 80 and 95 percent of all jobs are never publicly posted. How do you find these jobs? By connecting to those who know about these openings. By using the tips in this program, you can find the job you want in less time than other job search methods. Newton's Apple Classics, 26 cass. Science-General. Short Subjects. 780 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. "Newton's Apple Classics" is an appealing half-hour science series drawn from various years of Newton's Apple, the familiar series that has been carried by PBS stations since 1983. The series covers a broad spectrum of subjects including Life Science, Earth Science, Physics, Biology, Chemistry, Astronomy, Technology, Health & Medicine, Animal Science & Sports Science. Each episode contains several short segments, each on a different science subject. The segment's activities involve the host & guest scientists in the discovery of basic scientific facts & principles. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS, Set. (Order #: E528) $520.00; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 1: Investigating Mummies, Bicyles, Why Helium Makes Your Voice Change, Owls. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 1 begins with a look at how scientists are using techniques like C.A.T. scans, X-rays & fiber opticscopes to unravel the inner secrets of mummies. Then it's the physics of bicycles, & how centrifugal force, angular momentum & inertia all help to keep them stable. Next, it's the truth behind why helium makes your voice go up, & finally, we take a close up look at the unique lifestyles & adaptations of owls. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 2: Hot Air Balloons, Hearing, Why You Get "Side Stitches" When You Run, Beluga Whales. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with a ride in a hot-air balloon & a look at some of the physics behind why balloons fly. Then it's a trip inside the human ear to discover the mechanism behind hearing & what it's like to have a hearing loss. Next, the truth behind "side stitches," (those annoying pains you get in your stomach when you run) is explored, & the show concludes with a close up look at beluga whales & how they're maintained in captivity. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 3: Fire, Artificial Hearts, Penguins. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Featuring Lyle Joyce. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 3 begins with a discussion about fire & several graphic demonstrations showing how fires start & maintain themselves. Then it's a detailed look inside the human heart with Dr. Lyle Joyce, one of the surgeons involved with the development of the Jarvic-7 artificial heart. The show concludes at Sea World in San Diego with a group of Antarctic penguins whose special adaptations allow them to live where no bird has gone before! Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 4: Lie Detectors, Dimples on Golf Balls, Hiccups, Homemade Cold Remedies. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with a discussion about lie detector tests & several demonstrations showing how polygraph machines record subtle changes in breathing, skin chemistry & blood pressure when people lie. Then it's off to the golf course where the physics of golf balls is explored. Wind tunnel tests show how dimples & bottom spin make a ball go farther using Bernoulli's principle to get lift. Finally, it's the truth about hiccups, & a presentation of some homemade cold remedies. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 5: Thermography, How Your Voice Works, Why You Yawn, Pronghorns. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 5 opens with a demonstration of thermography, a picture which is made using an infra-red scanner which picks up heat rather than light from an object. Following a discussion of some of the uses of thermography, we discover how the human voice works & why people are capable of making so many different sounds. Next we learn some of the theories scientists use to explain yawning, & the show closes with a look at pronghorns, one of the fastest species on Earth. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 6: Science & Athletic Training, Radioactivity, Pimples, Siberian Tigers. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 6 begins with a look at how scientific testing & training using computers & video cameras have helped athletes to perform better. Next, we take a look at the various forms of radioactivity & some common sources found in everyday life. The discussion shifts to pimples & the reasons we get them, & the show concludes with a trip to the zoo to take a close up look at Siberian Tigers, the largest member of the cat family. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 7: Dinosaur Fossils, Bullet-Proof Vests, The Causes of Heartburn, Killer Whales. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with an investigation of dinosaur fossils & the variety of clues which scientists use to piece together information about the anatomy & lifestyles of these fantastic creatures. Then the focus shifts to bullet-proof vests & glass where demonstrations show how these unique materials dissipate energy from the impact. Finally, we learn the truth about what causes heartburn, & on location at Sea World in Florida, we take a close up look at killer whales & learn about their habits & behaviors. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 8: Boomerangs, The Science of Cooking, Hibernating Bears. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 8 opens with some graphic demonstrations on the proper way to throw a boomerang. Back in the studio we discover how Bernoulli's principle & gyroscopic stability couple to control the flight of these unique devices. Then it's off to cooking class where the science behind well mixed salad dressing, no-stick pasta & lump-free sauces are discussed. The show closes with a team of scientists tracking & collecting data on hibernating black bears in the Minnesota woods. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 9: Comets, Perpetual Motion Machines, Warts, Sharks. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with a demonstration showing the nature & composition of comets. With the help of models, we get the inside story on how these dirty snowballs from space form tails & why scientists are so interested in them. Then, it's a look at perpetual motion machines, those devices that are supposed to run forever & supposedly defy the laws of physics. After a brief discussion on the truth about warts, the show closes with a trip to Sea World in Florida where we take a close up look at sharks & learn some of their habits. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $16.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 10: FBI Crime Lab, The Stomach, Llamas. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 10 begins with a staged bank robbery to demonstrate some of the scientific methods used by the FBI lab to solve the crime. Some of the techniques used include latent finger prints, magnetic imaging & electronmicroscopy. Then it's a look at how the human stomach combines chemical & mechanical action to digest food & the show closes with a close-up look at llamas & how they are particularly adapted to life at high altitudes. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 11: How Muscles Work, Einstein's Theory of Relativity, Shooting Stars, Raptor Rehab. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with a look at your muscles & how they use leverage to get a great deal of lift out of a little movement. Host Ira Flatow then has a down-to-Earth chat with Albert Einstein about his Theory of Relativity & how the curvature of space affects our perspective. While on the topic of space, we take a look at the origin & composition of meteors, those "shooting stars" that light up the night sky. The show closes with an on-site visit to the Raptor Rehab Center to learn how injured birds of prey are prepared to go back into the wild. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 12: Sounds in the Shower, Calories in Food, Suntans, Cavies. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This show begins with a close up look at why certain sounds seem to become more intense in the shower. Through a series of demonstrations, we learn about resonance & how vibrating air can be manipulated. Then it's time to count calories as we make an in-depth analysis of what a calorie is & how our body uses food as a fuel source. Next, we discover why some people tan in the summer while others burn - & the truth about why beach blondes get lighter hair. Finally, with the help of some live specimens, we learn some of the habits & habitats of the Cavy, the largest rodent in the world & a close relative of the Guinea Pig. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 13: Flight Simulators, Venomous Snakes, The Common Cold, Hedgehogs. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with an on-site look at how flight simulators work at the Minneapolis Airport & discusses why they are so important in modern day pilot training. Then it's back to the studio to discuss several types of poisonous snakes & the dangers of snake bites. Next, we take a close up look at hedgehogs learning about their habits & habitats & finally, we explore the truth about the common cold - how it's transmitted, what researchers are doing to study it & how some people have tried to cure it in the past. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 14: Caves & Cave Life, Lasers, Why Skin Wrinkles When Wet, Birth of a Killer Whale. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins on location in Puerto Rico where we get the inside story on how caves & cave structures form in limestone. We go back to the studio for a demonstration on how lasers are used to seal blood vessels & vaporize tumors during surgery. Then it's the truth about why your skin wrinkles when it soaks in water. The show closes with a trip to Sea World in Florida to witness the birth of baby Shamu, the first killer whale ever born in captivity. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $16.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 15: Hypothermia, Moon Phases, Changing Voices During Puberty, Yaks. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 15 begins with a look at the causes & effects of hypothermia on the human body & what can be done to prevent this life-threatening condition. Using a special camera, we see a demonstration of why the Moon changes phases followed by a down-to-Earth explanation on why boys voices change as they go through puberty. The show closes with a close-up look at Yaks & their special adaptations for life at the "top of the world". Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 16: Sponges, Bed of Nails, Probability, Pelicans. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program features an on-site look at sponges growing in the waters of the Caribbean Sea. We discover how these unique creatures feed & grow in their ocean environment & learn some of the uses in which they have in modern society. Back in the studio we get a graphic demonstration of the physics involved with a bed of nails. Next we discover how to calculate the odds at winning the jackpot on a slot machine. The show closes on location in Florida with a close-up look at pelicans in their natural environment. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 17: How Bees Make Honey, High Blood Pressure, Bruises, Hiccups. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 17 begins with a look at how bees make honey by collecting nectar, bringing it back to the hive & chemically changing it in the comb. We see a demonstration on how bees communicate with each other by using a special dance. Then we learn about the dangers of high blood pressure, what effects it has on the heart & blood vessels & what can be done to reduce the risks. The show concludes with a look at how bruises form & what causes hiccups. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 18: Telescopes, Food Facts, Manatees. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with a look at a variety of different telescopes & how they all use different methods to collect data from distant objects. We go on location to the Kitt Peak 4-meter optical telescope in Arizona, the Arecebo radio telescope in Puerto Rico & the Very Long Array in New Mexico. Then it's back in the studio to discuss some food facts including when mayonnaise can make you sick, why warm milk puts you to sleep & the truth about aphrodisiacs. The show closes on location in Florida to take a close up look at manatees in their natural habitat. We learn why these gentle creatures are called the "cows of the sea" & why they are an endangered marine mammal. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 19: The Human Immune System, The Physics of Skis, Gas Laws & Blimps, Beavers. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 19 begins with a look inside the human immune system. Using a variety of models we see how the various components of this system work together to fight off a sore throat. Next it's off to the slopes where we discover the physics behind the construction of skis & how they have changed over time. Then, it's up into the air with a group of students who compete to figure out how much helium is in the Goodyear Blimp. The show closes with a look at beavers, the largest North American rodent whose special adaptations make it the construction champ of the animal kingdom. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 20: Aluminum Baseball Bats, Polarized Sun Glasses, Dreams, Peregrine Falcons. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Featuring Kirby Puckett. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This programs opens at the ball park where baseball superstar Kirby Puckett gives us a lesson on the mechanics of batting. Back in the studio, we learn about the physics of baseball bats & why aluminum bats make the ball go farther than wood. Next are some demonstrations featuring polarized sun glasses showing why they are so effective at cutting out sun glare. Next, we learn what happens in our brain during dreams & the show closes with a look at peregrine falcons & some of the ways this endangered species is being reintroduced to urban environments. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 21: Plastic Surgery, Aerodynamic Bicycles, Ailing Whales. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-15. (gr. 7-10). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with a detailed look at plastic surgery & how it's used for both cosmetic as well as reconstructive purposes. Using video imaging we learn how surgeons can see what the finished product looks like before the operation takes place. Then it's on location to Reno, Nevada, to discover how engineers have been able to use aerodynamic design to minimize wind resistance & create a bike that has a top speed of over 65 MPH. The show closes with a look at how sick whales are treated at Sea World in San Diego. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 22: Getting to the North Pole, Future Inventions, Sea Otters. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Featuring Ann Bancroft. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 23 opens with video footage from the Steger Expedition, a two-month dog sled journey to the North Pole. Ann Bancroft, the only woman on the 8-person team, describes what they had to endure on their 55-day trek, & demonstrates some of the unique clothing & equipment she used. Then on location at the Science Museum of Minnesota, we meet a group of young inventors & see some of the technology they've dreamed up for the future. The show closes at the Monterey Bay Aquarium in California to take a close up look at sea otters in their natural environment. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 23: Tornados, Light & Vision, Laryngitis, Beach Facts. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with an investigation into the causes of tornados. With the help of several different models, we see how these storms develop & what makes them so destructive. Then it's off to the Exploratorium in San Francisco to get some insight on how light travels, why we see optical illusions, & how mirrors turn the world inside out. Back in the studio, we discover the causes of laryngitis & then it's off to the beach where host Ira Flatow explains why sea shells sound like the ocean, & the physics of footprints in the sand. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 24: Neon Lights, Rube Goldberg Awards, Aspirin, Atlantic Puffins. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. Program 24 begins with a demonstration of some of the methods that "benders" use to create neon lights. In the studio, we explore the physics of why different gases give off different colored light & how this property is used to determine the chemistry of stars. Then it's off to Purdue University for the annual Rube Goldberg competition & the creation of some wild & egg-citing machines. Back to the studio, we discover how aspirin works to block pain & then it's off to the coast of Maine for a close up look at Atlantic Puffins, an endangered species of bird that's making a comeback with the help of some dedicated humans. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 25: Cavities in Teeth, Snowflakes, Human Reflexes, The Arctic Fox. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. This program begins with a trip inside the human mouth to take a close up look at some of the common causes of cavities & what can be done to prevent them. Then it's off to the Science Museum of Minnesota to analyze the structure of snowflakes. We take a look at how they can all be different yet all have the same six sided symmetry. Back in the studio, we learn the truth about reflex reactions & why doctors test your knee jerk & finally, we take a close up look at the Arctic Fox, a small mammal whose body is uniquely adapted to living in the arctic tundra. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple Classics No. 26: Cocaine Addiction, Laundry Questions, Racing Sled Dogs. Science-General. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 12-14. (gr. 7-9). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Ira Flatow. The final program begins with a detailed look at the way cocaine works in the human nervous system & the psychological effects that it has on the brain. Then it's off to the laundry where host Ira Flatow explains how soap & detergent work & why clothes shrink. Finally, it's on location in the north woods to take a close up look at racing sled dogs. We discover what physical features set these dogs apart & learn some of the ways these unique animals are trained. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $24.95; pap., tchr. ed. $12.00.

Newton's Apple II. Science-General. 55 mins. Do your kids ever ask you why the sky is blue? Why houses creak? Or, why you don't have all the answers to all their questions? Then this show is for both of you. An Emmy Award-winning science show. Facets Multimedia, Inc. VHS. (Order #: S13260) $19.95.

Newton's Apple Series, 51 cass. (1996). Science-General. Color. (YA). Age: 11-14. (gr. 6-9). Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. (Order #: E630); pap., tchr. ed. $20.00.

Newton's Apple Videodisc: Life Science Series, 8 segments on 1 videodisc. Science-General. Age: 10-17. (gr. 5-12). Find out about plant growth, butterfly migration, hip replacement, aerobic exercise, HIV & AIDS, & Novocaine. Nighthawks. (1978). Color. 109 mins. When it was released in 1978, "Nighthawks" was billed as the first film from the United Kingdom to deal with gay life in a positive light. Viewed almost 30 years later it is a time capsule from a time that does not seem all that different from today. Jim, a seemingly average teacher in a comprehensive school, lives the classic double life: nights in the gay bars and discos, days in school - and in the closet. With each new acquaintance the same tensions arise, does he venture beyond his current life style, who does he tell the truth to, and is there anything more to gay life than the one night stand? His worlds collide when he's confronted by his students. Asked if he is "bent" Jim does not retreat to the closet but gives the boys a resounding lesson in tolerance that still reverberates today. Nightmare in Nanking (the Rape of Nanking) China & Japan at War. Japanese Atrocities in Asia. Color and B&W. 77 mins mins. (English, Narrated: English). Video Released Dec. 2005. Directed by Rhawn Joseph. Nightmare in Nanking details the Japanese invasion of China, and the horrible atrocities committed by the Japanese against Chinese and other Asian peoples, including Filipinos and American POWs. This film is not for the faint-hearted. The last third of the film has pictures of horrible atrocities as they are being committed by the Japanese against women, children, and little girls and little boys.In 1937, Japan launched an all our war against China, concentrating their forces on the port city of Shanghai which was the banking and commercial center of China. Following the fall of Shanghai, the Japanese military began killing Chinese POWs, and savagely murdering civilians, and raping and torturing women and little girls as they marched onward to Nanking which was the capital of China.On December 13, 1937, Nanking was captured by the Japanese army. For the next 8 weeks, Japanese soldiers murdered, tortured, beheaded, bayoneted, burned, and buried alive, old men, women, and little boys and little girls. Tens of thousands of men, women, and children, were tied together and set on fire. Over 80,000 women and girls were gang raped, tortured, and then murdered. Even Nazis living in the security of the Nanking Safety Zone were horrified by the savagery of the Japanese, likening their experience as a Hell they could never have imagined. Nearly 300,000 Chinese civilians were tortured and murdered over an 8 week period. And then, the Japanese proceeded to commit identical atrocities in other Asian cities including the Philippines, including establishing fiendish medical laboratories where humans were exposed to horrible diseases and then dissected alive.Nightmare in Nanking is not for the faint hearted. Japanese soldiers took pictures of the atrocities they committed. They were proud of the crimes they committed against women and children. These pictures are reproduced in the last third of this film.The Rape of Nanking was an event unique in the history of humanity. And yet, despite these well documented crimes against humanity, the Japanese government continues to deny that Japanese soldiers committed these atrocities. Japanese war criminals continue to be honored by the Japanese government. Emperor Hirohito, and the WWII Japanese government was in fact never punished, and Prince Asaka, who commanded the Nanking invasion force, became a professional golfer. UniversityPress.Info. VHS. Nightveil. Color. 112 mins. Age: 13-UP. NR. Video Released Apr. 2005. Directed by Bill Black. Author Bill Black. Created by Bill Black. Produced by Bill Black. NIGHTVEIL:WITCHWAR is a live-action DVD that brings the popular FEMFORCE comic book (from AC COMICS character NIGHTVEIL to life in a wild, way-out feature-length movie that recounts her origin (see her learn the ways of sorcery from the other-worldly wizard known as Azagoth, and evolve from the two-fisted crimefighter known as BLUE BULLETEER, into NIGHTVEIL, Sorceress Supreme!!) This is an actual DVD movie, produced and packaged just like one you'd buy at the local video store. It is compatible and playable with any standard US-made DVD player. The program consists of a feature-length Origin of NIGHTVEIL drama (guest-starring the villainous ALIZARIN CRIMSON), plus additional extras including the alternate, original ending to the feature; a blooper reel; a mockumentary explaining the "Chesse-o-Rama" cinematic process; story-behind-the-film commentary with producer Bill Black; a photo gallery of stills and other shots taken from unused scenes, and the Femforce Comics graphics gallery- all adding up to almost two full hours of entertainment. The film was created, written, produced and directed by AC Comics publisher Bill Black, and stars Mary Capps as NIGHTVEIL/BLUE BULLETEER; Maria Paris as ALIZARIN CRIMSON; Jon Smith, Colleen Kavavaugh, David Herzog, Chuck Capps and Sonia Guyer, and features acting performances by comic-book professionals Brad Gorby, John Beatty, Chris Allen, Eric Coile and Rebekah Black. Chock full of sexy superheroines, vile villainesses, monsters, mages and magical nether-dimensions; this lovingly- produced dramatic portrayal of the origin of one of the most popular members of AC Comics' FEMFORCE comic book series comes out of a unique blend of influences. In tone, it is a cross between the low-budget sci-fi & horror films of the 1950's, and the live-action superhero television shows of the 1960's; with a dash of 1940's style movie serial thrown in- all finished out using today's CGI technology. The effects are cheesy, but the girls look good in costume. There is action aplenty, and settings range from the Florida Everglades to the planet known as Dark Dhagor, and into The Limbo Void and beyond- and the story is pure FEMFORCE. This presentation carries the feel and tenor of an actual AC comic very well. In addition to the title feature, there are plenty of "extras", giving this package real entertainment value. NIGHTVEIL:WITCHWAR is a full-color, live-action DVD calibrated for play in all regions, on any standard DVD player. The Origin of Nightveil feature runs 56 minutes long, and including extras, the total running time for this DVD is 112 minutes. This DVD is unrated, but contains material suited for all ages. A.C. Nine Good Teeth. Color and B&W. 80 mins. Video Released Dec 2004. Directed by Alex Halpern. When Brooklyn-born, Sicilian-American matriarch "Nana" (Mary Mirabito Livornese Cavalier) was young, a gypsy prophesied that she?d only live to be 96 years old. With that ominous birthday looming near, director Alex Halpern set out to document the wondrously full life of his now 105-year-old grandmother, a fiercely independent spitfire with an endless supply of hilariously homespun wisdom. Dreamily unfolding through Nana?s stories, recollections, and interviews with her family some loving, some rivalrous NINE GOOD TEETH reveals many of the common truths hidden away in all our families, as well as the unexpected: late night visits from Beat poet Jack Kerouac, illicit love affairs, and even the occasional murder. No Excuses: Sexual Harassment. (1999). Law. Color. 25 mins. (YA). Age: 12-17. (gr. 7-12). G. Video Released Sep. 1999. This program, specifically created for students, uses a series of real-life vignettes to demonstrate & model various kinds of sexual harrassment in the school environment. Examples presented range from indirect forms of harrassment (such as unwanted propositions, rumor spreading & name calling) to more blatant kinds like physical blocking or touching. The video firmly states that any physical or verbal behavior which makes one person uncomfortable can be considered sexual harrassment. As the video continues, real teenagers express their own opinions about the fictional scenarios presented. Viewers will also hear from a Sexual Harrassment Officer, who suggests options & resources students can seek out to help them deal with an unwanted situation once it has been identified. After reviewing segments from the video, your students will have a chance to discuss the issue for themselves. Human Relations Media. VHS, pap., tchr. ed. No Future? Sociology. Color. 28 mins. (Comics, the Ninth Art Ser.). Age: 9-UP. (gr. 4 up). Directed by Alejandro Vallejo, Maire Ruiz de Austri. As George Orwell's fateful 1984 drew closer, the arms race gathered momentum & the horizons of the future grew ominously dark. Cruise missiles, SS20s, nuclear power, ecological worries, rising unemployment & ever-shoddier goods at ever-increasing prices all contributed to the sombre "zeitgeist" of the times. To the crash of badly tuned guitars, the punk (anti-)movement spread throughout the western world. Meanwhile the old dream of a united Europe took a few hesitant steps forward. European comics of the time naturally reflected these preoccupations. French & Spanish version available. Roland Collection. VHS. (Order #: 790) $99.00; 3/4" U-Matic. $346.50.

Notation: The Thin Red Line. Music-History And Criticism. Color. 52 mins. (Howard Goodall's Big Bangs Ser.: Turning Points in Music History). Public performance. Contribution by Howard Goodall. Early musical notation was much like a road map that lacked names or places. The use of neumes gave the basic shape of the tune and a primitive notion of rhythm, but could not tell the performer what note to start on. Shows how all of that changed around the year 1030, when the choirmaster Guido of Arezzo came up with the simple device of a thin red line: a dot directly on it would always represent the note "F"; a dot above it, G; a dot below it, E; and so on. Green cardless & with only a pocket full of money, she struggles to make ends meet by working as a hostess at a Japanese night club. Her nights are filled with dreadful & awkward attempts at entertaining her clients & salary-men who "visit" her for her companionship. At the end, Yuka's frustration only escalates to rage as her perceptions about relations between women & men are more confirmed than challenged or changed. NAATA Distribution. VHS, Incl. printed supplement. $150.00, Rental 50.00 Incl. printed supplement.
